

ANALYTICAL DECISION-MAKING TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES

ABM 332

Agribusiness Operations Management

3 Credits

Fall Semester

Prerequisites: ABM/FIM 100

OBJECTIVES:

An Understanding of the importance of operational and tactical decisions in agribusiness. An examination of the typical decisions and analysis required in agribusiness.

OUTLINE OF MAJOR TOPICS:

- Logistic Management
- Blending analysis
- Partial budgeting
- Risk and investment analysis
- Inventory control
- Customer-focused planning
- Information systems
- Executive support systems
- Database systems
- Project Planning & Control

For more information contact:

ABM 332 Instructor
Dr. Stephen Harsh, 353-4518

Ruthi Bloomfield, Advisor, 432-5298